

Concert Evaluations On Allison Durham Speer

In September and October 2005, Allison sang at three different ladies retreats at Lake Ann Baptist Camp in Lake Ann, Michigan. Each lady was given an evaluation sheet at the conclusion of the event. This is a sampling of answers to the question, "In what way was the ministry of Allison Durham Speer beneficial to you?"

- Allison blesses my heart as I watch her sing. Her passion is contagious and her love for God is evident.
- Her fresh, energetic approach and those old gospel favorites just really brought me back to my roots!
- Awesome! Sweet spirited – really loves the Lord and anyone who meets her can see Jesus in her.
- When Allison talked about not knowing when you may be a safe haven for someone in trouble, it reassured me that God has definitely ordered our steps in advance. Her music and her energy and love for God are awesome and inspiring.
- What a powerful voice in a little lady! I love her passion for the old hymns and agree that they need to be sung along with praise choruses in our churches.
- Oh my, glory, glory, glory! Her God-given talent blessed my heart.
- Allison's sweet spirit, incredible talent, and honest love for God is always a blessing. Her humor is just frosting on the cake. She truly ministers to us – not just entertainment!
- This was the best musical concert in my 33 years of Christian life. She is a liberated believer. I want to be like that.
- Wow! What a voice. But the accent reminded me of my mother's relatives in Kentucky and how dear their ministry in my life was and can still be!
- She's like an old friend even though she doesn't know me.
- Her music is always good but her sharing time and humor are terrific and very meaningful!
- Allison has such a beautiful voice. Her love for the Lord is evident and her songs were uplifting.
- Her songs and energy always bring joy to my heart. I'm seven months pregnant and my daughter moved every time she sang!
- Her music and speaking the Word spoke to me. Jesus "oozed" from her!
- Loved the balance of new songs with the old hymns.
- She was one of my top reasons for coming! Very encouraging!
- Thanks for holding on and breathing new life into those sacred hymns.
- She spoke directly to my soul. Friday evening put things into perspective for me. She taught me to let God shine from within me and that the Word of God can heal and free your soul.
- Just listening to her brings joy to my heart.
- Just soul soothing singing – love her!
- Encouraging – love her passion.
- She's an encourager and genuine.
- So infectious and enthusiastic.
- Her passion to serve Christ is very evident.
- Her spirit is so sweet that I am blessed by her beautiful singing as well as her words.
- Her music was very uplifting.
- Her passion in her singing brings comfort.
- She touched my needs with her beautiful words in song.
- Allison is always a blessing. Her songs and words refresh my soul.
- Her talent and joy for singing for God has lifted my spirit.
- Wow! She blesses me big time!
- Very invigorating and inspiring.
- I love her music and her wit.
- Always encouraging – her amazing voice and ministry uplifts and reinforces my faith in Jesus. She is always an incredible blessing.
- Soooo inspiring! Her bringing the Word to us in word and song was great.
- Wow! I bought all 4 CD's and could listen to her sing all day. I enjoyed her very much and her deep love of the Lord.
- The words of her song seemed to flow straight from the throne of God - the experience of it soared me high and nearer to His throne. Allison seemed to sing and create the atmosphere of Heaven itself here.
- She is like a spring rain in a parched land to me.
